DETAILED ACTION

The drawings are objected to because the front plug 2 in figure 2 should be illustrated as having a key hole in its front to accept the key (see page 6, line 15). Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claims 1-3 are objected to because of the following informalities: On page 6, line 4, "close" should be replaced with --closed--. On page 6, line 6, "close" should be replaced with --closed--. On page 6, line 13, "on" should be replaced with --the--. On page 6, line 18, "can be" should be replaced with --capable of being--. On page 6, line

Art Unit: 3676

21, "side" should be replaced with --sides--. On page 6, line 21, "front plug is" should be replaced with --locating retainer are--. On page 6, line 21, "to make" should be replaced with --such that--. On page 6, line 22, "on" should be replaced with --in--. On page 6, line 22, "grove" should be replaced with --groove--. In the last line of page 6, "front plug have" should be replaced with --locating retainer has--. Appropriate correction is required.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gallagher (055) in view of DeWalch et al (703) and Wilkin (953).

Gallagher teaches in figure 5 an anti-twist key lock including a key lock case 35, a closed end at the left side, an open end on the right side, a through hole 37 to receive a locking bar 32 and a spring 69, a locking tumbler set 40, 43 having an interlocking post 44 to retract the locking bar 32 with key rotation, a front plug 61 to receive the key, the front plug including a threaded fitting part and a locating retainer 65. DeWalch et al teaches a front plug 8 having a fitting part which can be pushed into the lock case 7, and receiving a retainer clip 56 in a receiving groove 58 such that the front plug 8 may rotate freely. Wilkin teaches a retainer clip 10, 11 having a wavy shape along its sides as seen in figure 3 and having retaining grooves at 13 in figure 3 to receive the spring 12, wherein the lock case 6 includes a slit 9 and opposite inner groove 9, and the front plug 3 includes a receiving groove 14 to receive the clip. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute a clip and receiving groove for the retainer 65 of Gallagher, in view of the teaching of DeWalch et al, the motivation being to allow the front plug 61 of Gallagher to freely rotate, to thwart tampering attempts with the lock. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute the locating retainer clip and slits/grooves 9 of Wilkin for the clip 56 of Gallagher as modified by DeWalch, the motivation being to simplify assembly of the locating retainer between the lock case and receiving groove of the front plug.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
